Many thanks for your kind letter of 20 March and your offer to give us the series of newspaper and magazine clippings on intelligence which you kept during the period you worked for O.S.S. and subsequent thereto.

We would like very much to look over this material.

[redacted] is at the present time working on a book dealing with the U.S.S. and I am sure that he would also like to see what you have. We will be glad to send someone over to your place to pick up this material, or you can send it to me here.

It was good to hear from you again and I appreciate your thoughtfulness in writing to me about the clippings.

Sincerely,

Dear Allen, During my active period of working at O.S.S. then Strategic Services & ~~then~~ up to '48 I kept a clipping series of all newspaper & magazine articles on the subject of India, & its evolution & the attitudes toward it here -

In clearing out my files it occurred to me that instead of consigning these scrap books to the fire -
